Ensy to Beat Hotels. "Hotel men give out that they warn each other by circulars about deadbeats," said the slick looking man with the high hat, "but don't you let that stop you if you want to live high for a Few men like to publish the fact that they have been done up. It's the easiest thing in the world to beat a first class hotel. All you want is a good suit of clothes and plenty of cheek. A grip with a few shirts and collars is as good as a trunk. "You drive up in style; you register to get the best room in the house; you bulldoze the clerks and threaten the servants. A checkbook is a good thing to show, but you pay for nothing. You talk in a loud voice, you make plenty of kicks, and you order the best wines for dinner. Lands, but the whole staff of the house will fall over each other to make it pleasant for you! You don't pay the first week's bill. On the contrary, you are indignant and demand an apology. When the second week is due, your drafts have not come.

"You will be worked out of the house, but with gentleness and apologies. They don't want a row, and they don't want notoriety. You'll be forgiven if you'll only go, and if you take up your quarters for the next two weeks right across the street no one from the hotel will give you away. When a man beats us, we like to see him beat our neighbor, you know. It's nice and genteel work, with no kicks or hard times, and there is always room for one more in the profession."-Detroit Journal.

Carried Her Point and Pet.

It is said by a cynic of the mascu-line gender that a man never yields when he knows he is in the right nor a woman when she is equally certain she is in the wrong. In an Amsterdam avenue car the other day, while the conductor was forward collecting fares, a woman, followed by a large English bulldog, entered and seated herself.

"Madam," said the conductor, "dogs are not allowed in these cars." "I am going to Fifty-seventh street.

Here is my fare," was the answer. "I cannot take it, madam. It is as much as my position is worth to let that dog ride in this car."

"Here is my fare." "I must enforce the rule. It would be better to get off quietly; otherwise I shall have to call an officer."

"I've taken the dog in these cars be "Only dogs that can be carried are allowed to ride in these cars." "Come, darling, get in mother's lap." she said to the beast, and after considerable effort she succeeded in dragging "darling" upon her knees. She flashed a look of scorn at the conductor and exclaimed, "Now, aren't you ashamed of yourself?"-New York

A Question of Clocks. Which is the best, a clock that is right only once a year, or a clock that is right twice every day? "The latter,"

you reply, "unquestionably." Very good, reader; now attend. I have two clocks; one doesn't go at all and the other loses a minute a day, which would you prefer? "The losing one," you answer, "without a doubt." Now observe. The one which loses a minute a day has to lose 12 hours, or 720 minutes, before it is right again; consequently it is only right once in two years, whereas the other is evidently right as often as the time it points to come round, which happens twice a day. So you've contradicted yourself once. "Ah, but," you say, "what's the use of its being right twice a day, if I can't tell when the time comes?"

Why, suppose the clock points to 8 o'clock, don't you see that the clock is right at 8 o'clock? Consequently when 8 o'clock comes your clock is right. "Yes, I see that," you reply.

Very good; then you've contradicted yourself twice. Now get out of the difficulty as you can, and don't contradict yourself again if you can help it."-'Lewis Carroll Picture Book."

How He Discovered Her. "Yes," said a noted detective, "I have seen a great many queer things in my experience.

"Discovered a good many gigantic frauds, I suppose?" ventured an ad-"Well, I should say so," was the reply. "But, between you and me, the most complete piece of deception I ever saw was a woman, young, pretty and I would have sworn, an angel."

"But she wasn't?" "I should say not. She has a temper like a whirlwind, and when she gets wild the very earth seems to shake."

"Good gracious! And how did you manage to discover her true charac-"Well, I-ahem! The fact is, I married her!"
